

Field Notes

Detective: J. Rodriguez

Date/Time: August 28, 2025 / 2:30 PM

Location: Wright Now Middle School, Locker #58

INITIAL OBSERVATIONS:

Locker was open. Looks like some kid's locker. Textbooks are all on one shelf. Seems to be some gym stuff in a bag.

SPECIFICS:

Found a science textbook, a math book, an English one, and a social studies book. Pencils and notebooks too. Looks like there's a calculator.

PERSONAL ITEMS:

Found a small book on debate. Looks like it's been used a lot. There's a piece of paper taped to the inside of the door that seems to be a hallway pass to go to the Nurse's Office.

EVIDENCE OF THEFT:

Found a crumpled, empty wrapper for a chocolate bar. Found a small piece of paper next to it with a weird note on it.

THE NOTE:

It's handwritten. Can't tell who it's from. It says,

WITH A LITTLE SHUFFLE AND A LITTLE SWAY,
I MADE SOME CANDY VANISH TODAY!
PERHAPS NEXT TIME, YOU'LL BE MORE AWARE,
AND LOCK UP YOUR TREATS WITH EXTRA CARE.

Locker Drawing Template

Sketch the “scene of the crime” based only on the evidence provided by the Detective’s Field Notes from above. Think about how you can visually represent and arrange the items based on the descriptions.

